Starting Point

Are you new to UUCP? Do you have questions about UUCP and Unitarian Universalism? Starting Point is an informal program especially for you! Meet a representative from the Membership Committee by the Starting Point sign in the front lobby any second Sunday of the month. You don't have to sign up. Just show up!

In twenty to thirty minutes, we will answer questions and take you on a brief tour of our campus. We will also give you some tips on the best ways to start making connections at UUCP.

All newcomers are invited to enjoy a Starting Point conversation and tour. If you are thinking about becoming a member of our congregation, we strongly encourage you to attend Starting Point prior to enrollment in a Pathway to Membership program.

Small Group Ministries

Connect – Share – Grow – Serve

Participating in a Small Group Ministry is a gratifying way to connect with others and to renew your heart and spirit.

Day-to-day life is sometimes a busy struggle in a hectic world. It may leave us feeling out of touch with ourselves and without the energy and inner resources to reach out to others in service and love. Small group connections have been found to be a source of renewal.

Small Groups allow participants to more fully explore the congregation's monthly worship themes and to share the theme's influence on one's own life. Each group is led by a trained facilitator. In addition, at least once during the groups' duration, it is asked that a project be undertaken to benefit the congregation or the larger community.

Registration begins in September. You are also invited to "sample" a group to see what it is like by coming to the "Thursday Evening Open Drop-In" group. Informational packets about Small Groups may be found on the congregation website or by emailing sgm@phoenixuucp.org.

Additional groups may be added to the list that follows. Check the website or contact Ruth Braunstein at sgm@phoenixuucp.org for more information.

Living By Heart

Facilitators: Susan Goldsmith, Donna Featherston

Thursdays, October 1 - December 31, 7:00 PM
Living by Heart focuses on daily contemplation/meditation/devotional practice that includes learning words "by heart." The words are chosen by individual participants -- poetry, prose, scripture, songs or whatever you choose -- according to themes. The curriculum includes themes throughout the year such as attentiveness, welcoming, discernment, kinship, action and praise. During our times together, we will share our experiences of daily practice and the words we have taken to heart.

Thoughtful Leadership Forum

Facilitator: Kim St. Clair

2nd Thursdays, October & November and January through May, 7:00 PM

Thoughtful and compassionate leadership brings many spiritual gifts to both leaders and those they serve. This forum provides a regular space for exploring:

- Members' leadership strengths and styles.
- Topics regarding the gifts (both given and received) and challenges of servant leadership.
- How leadership in our congregation can change the world.

Kim St. Clair

Faithiest

Facilitators: Janet McCall Bickley, Michael Hipps

Thursdays, October 15 - 29, 7:00 PM
Deeply held values are communicated through the language of a religious culture or community. Share author Chris Stedman's journey of learning interfaith dialogue and respect through a reading and discussion of his book, "Faitheist," in which he describes how humanists and members of other faith traditions learn to listen to hear commonalities and then work toward common goals.

Faith Like a River: Part One

Facilitator: Randy Miller

Tuesdays, September 29-November 3, 7:00 PM

Who was Jesus of Nazareth? What do we know about him and the early church founded in his name? The answer is complex. It is complicated even further by the fact the Roman Empire and its medieval successors made every effort to suppress religious diversity and to refashion popular movements towards their own ends. Order, it was assumed, required a strong emperor bolstered by a uniform faith. Yet dissenting views persisted even in the face of persecution, often becoming submerged only to resurface full-blown centuries later as in the Protestant Reformation, bringing UU reformers to the fore.

Randy Miller

Faith Like a River: Part Two

Tuesdays, March 8 - April 26, 7:00 PM

The course will focus on the emergence and diffusion of UU principles and faith from the Protestant Reformation on up to the current era and on the participation of UUs in a broad range of social movements.

Cakes for the Queen of Heaven, Part 1

Facilitators: Pat Reed & Caroline Adams

Saturdays, October 17 - November 14, 9:30 AM -12:30 PM

We begin with an introductory section featuring author Shirley's Ranck's "Statement of Feminist Thealogy," Elinor Artman's "Brief Herstory of Cakes," and Nancy Vedder-Shults, "Baking Cakes for the Queen of Heaven." The themes discussed are: The Sacred Female, In the Name of the Mother and the Daughter, Womanpower, The First Turning-From Goddess to God, and Reclaiming Women's Heritage of Peace."

Caroline Adams

Pat Reed

Cakes for the Queen of Heaven, Part Two

Saturdays, March 5-April 9, 9:30 AM - 12:30 PM

In Part Two, we will continue our journey into the past to reclaim the stories of powerful women to be found in ancient Judaism and in early Christianity. We will also look at the global silencing and brutalization of women that accompanied the rise of patriarchal religion and society. Finally we will celebrate the exciting new world-view and theology that has emerged in our time and explore the resulting personal and social changes.

Children's Ministry

UUCP supports robust ministry programs for the children and youth of our congregation. Intended to create community, experience wonder, and support each child's search for meaning, our Sunday religious education offerings are tailored to the needs of each age group. Families are asked to register their children in September of each year at the cost of $40 for the first child and $20 for each additional sibling.

Babies and Toddlers

Quality care is provided for babies (newborn to 18 months) in our nursery and toddlers (18 months – 3 years) in our preschool room, during both worship services and through the summer.

Three to 14 Year Olds

Weekly classes are held during the first service for age-based groups (Preschool – Pre-Kindergarten, K-1, 2-3, 4-6, 7-8 grades). Led by volunteer teachers, the classes explore our monthly worship themes and utilize curriculum from the Unitarian Universalist Association and other sources to explore our Seven Principles, UU history and historical figures, justice and love. The classes include rituals, stories and activities that engage the whole child.

During the summer and the second worship service, multi-age classes are offered, frequently with special themes and focus. In the summer 2015 our youth explored various scientific principles each week, courtesy of congregational and teacher volunteers who ran experiments, shared information, and had snacks and crafts from different scientific disciplines.

Middle School Youth – Our Whole Lives (OWL)

Young people in 7th and 8th grades are eligible to participate in OWL, a nine month comprehensive health education curriculum. Our Whole Lives helps participants make informed and responsible decisions about their sexual health and behavior. With a holistic approach, Our Whole Lives provides accurate, developmentally appropriate information about a range of topics, including relationships, gender identity, sexual orientation, sexual health, and cultural influences on sexuality. Guided by volunteer teachers and adult mentors from the congregation, this OWL program prepares our youth for a healthy personal relationship and understanding of sexuality. For more information, please feel free to read more on the UUA website: <http://www.uua.org/re/owl>

High School Youth - YRUU

Our Young Religious Unitarian Universalist (YRUU) group provides a welcoming and safe environment for high school age youth to share, seek meaning, challenge and grow together. YRUU meets weekly during worship services, led by engaged youth advisors. Youth from YRUU lead an annual worship service and participate in state and regional "cons," conventions of youth from Arizona, California and Nevada.

Volunteers Ministering to Our Young People

Our religious education programs are all staffed by dedicated volunteers who pour their passions, skills, beliefs and time into facilitating outstanding classes and groups for youth. Training is provided and teachers serve as the congregation's Children's and Youth Ministry Committee. There are numerous opportunities to volunteer; from class teacher to individual mentor. If you are interested, please contact Katie Resendiz, Acting Director of Children's Ministries at KatieResendiz@phoenixuu.org

Worship Service Together Time

Most Sundays, elementary-age youth start services with their parents in the sanctuary. After the opening hymn, lighting the chalice, and opening words, young people come to the front of the sanctuary for Together Time, which is the weekly message or activity for children. Once Together Time is complete, the congregation sings the children out to their religious education classes.

Multigenerational Services and Children's Chapel

Throughout the year the congregation holds multigenerational services, with children and adults worshipping together for the whole service. The first all-ages service will kick off the congregation year with the annual In-gathering Water Communion, where congregants share water from summer travels. In November, we will celebrate All Souls Day/Dia de los Muertos with a service honoring the Day of the Dead traditions from Mexico. Also in November, we have our annual bread service near Thanksgiving, where we share homemade bread from our cultural and family traditions. On Christmas Eve, we have a special family service where we perform our traditional "No-Rehearsal" Nativity Pageant.

Chalice Kids and Child Care Offerings

UUCP's Community Nights include Chalice Kids, a fun and playful romp for children to enjoy while parents attend classes or other activities.

Child care is provided during weekly choir practice and each Sunday for an hour before worship services to facilitate parent engagement in extra activities. Child care is also provided during congregation meetings and other special meetings or events. Childcare practices and providers follow safe congregational guidelines.

Music Ministries

Want to get involved in making music at UUCP? For more information about our music program or any of the following activities, contact our Music Director, Benjie Messer, at benjiemesser@phoenixuu.org.

*Benjie
Messer*

Congregation Choir

Experience the intimacy and beauty of singing in a choir! UUCP's Congregation Choir rehearses every Wednesday from September through May from 7:00 to 9:00 PM, and performs at two Sunday services each month. This group is open to adults or high school youth. The ability to read music at an elementary level is helpful.

Instrumentalists and Small Groups

If you play an instrument or if you used to play and would like to pick it up again, let Benjie know! Some instrumentalists meet up semi-regularly. Currently we have a ukulele circle, a brass group, a string ensemble, a rock band and a small vocal ensemble.

Sound Volunteers

Want to use your ears and get familiar with audio equipment? Our sound volunteers provide audio support and make recordings of our worship services and special events. Previous experience with audio equipment is wonderful but not required.

Music for Private Services

Members who want music for private services at UUCP, such as weddings and memorial services, are welcome to contact our Music Director Benjie Messer. He is happy to consult with members about music at their events, to provide professional musicians on any instrument (piano, organ, strings, flute, guitar, brass, harp, vocal soloists, choir, etc.) and in any style and to fulfill even the most unusual musical requests.

Exploring Membership

*Kristina
Benner*

Membership at UUCP is a significant decision. None of what we do – our programs, worship, classes, fellowship – would be possible without the support and leadership of members. Members are the foundation and health of our community and mission. And it is our hope that by joining the congregation members experience an even greater connection to the community, a deeper engagement with their own growth and greater opportunities for leadership and service within and beyond UUCP.

What does it mean to be a Member?

There are 5 Pillars to membership at UUCP.

1. Active participation and engagement at UUCP
2. Generous financial giving to help UUCP thrive
3. Generous giving of time and service to help UUCP innovate
4. A Commitment to your own spiritual growth
5. A Commitment to the larger UU community
6. A Recognition of how you are called to service beyond the Congregation

What if I am considering membership?

Before becoming a member, we encourage everyone to:

- Attend a Starting Point Tour (page 2)
- Take time to get to know the community
- Enjoy Sunday worship, enroll your children in Children's Ministries (page 5)
- Join a small group (page 3) or take an Adult Faith Development class (page 4)

How do I become a Member?

Our Pathway to Membership program is a 2-part class that invites you to meet with other people considering membership, hear more from ministers and leaders about what it means to be a member, ask questions, learn about the history of Unitarian Universalism and UUCP and ends with an invitation to join by signing the membership book and pledging your support. There is no pressure to join. We recognize membership is a commitment and we hope people will take their time before joining.

*Jenny Jones

Membership
Committee
Chair*

There is an optional third session for PTM, a “class reunion” of sorts. A month or two after the class, all participants will receive a special invitation to meet together during a Sunday coffee hour to reconnect with fellow Pathway participants, staff and Membership Committee members to find out how things are going for everyone. At this time, facilitators will answer questions that have come up since the group was last together and can assist people in getting better connected if needed.

Pathway to Membership Dates:

Thursdays, November 5 & 12; 6:45 - 8:30 PM

Sundays, February 7 & 14; 8:45 -10:15 AM

Thursdays, April 7 & 14; 6:45 – 8:30 PM

To register for one of the Pathway to Membership programs, contact the UUCP office at 602-840-8400 X 200 or sign up at the Welcome Table in the front lobby on any Sunday morning. You will get a phone call or email a week or two before the PTM series begins to confirm your plans to attend. There is no fee to participate in the Pathway to Membership program.

Justice Ministry Teams

Refugee Assistance Project

To broaden our outreach to refugees in the greater Phoenix area, UUCP has entered into partnership with the International Rescue Committee. The IRC provides many services both financial and educational designed to help newly resettled refugees find jobs and adjust to their new surroundings in the US. UUCP's Refugee Assistance Partnership will give our members a chance to use their skills as IRC volunteers in programs such as teaching English, job readiness and career coaching, citizenship study, and financial literacy to name just a few. We have also established an emergency fund for refugees in crisis and will participate in the IRC Holiday Giving Campaign. We can make a positive difference in refugees' lives by sharing our time, talent and treasure with our new neighbors. A presentation by the IRC will be held in October at the congregation to explain volunteer opportunities.

Immigration Small Group Justice Ministry Team

The Immigration Small Group Justice Ministry Team seeks to live out 'beloved community' at UUCP and in the Phoenix area by accompanying grassroots immigrant groups, acting with others in service and advocacy and appreciating the gifts of a multicultural community. Our initial partner is the Puente Human Rights Movement of Phoenix. Open meetings are held at UUCP on the fourth Thursday of the month, and we accompany our partner at different times throughout the month through events at and outside of Puente. Contact Bill Lace for more information at immigration@phoenixuu.org.

Bring your values to the Arizona Legislature with UUJAZ

Monday, February 15, 2016

Join UU's from across the state in this annual gathering at the State Capitol on President's Day. This is a day to amplify your voice by meeting in groups with your State Representatives and State Senator to share your values and concerns for the state. UU Justice Arizona (UUJAZ) is a statewide organization that empowers UUs to give voice to their values through justice and advocacy work. UUJAZ nurtures congregational social justice ministries, connects congregations across the state and energizes UUs to identify and act on justice opportunities at the state legislature www.uujaz.org.

Sewing and Craft Circle

The Sewing and Craft Circle meets monthly to make simple items to help others. Most recently the group sent children's dresses to Haiti and has started making knapsacks for children being removed from their home by Child Protective Services. Usually the group works together in the Johnson Room one Saturday each month on a drop-in basis between 11:00 AM and 4:00 PM. Call Paula Adkins at 602-999-5004 or email Lori at sewing@phoenixuu.org.

Nominate a Non-Profit

Every month UUCP "shares the plate" by donating one week's Sunday offering to a non-profit 501(c)(3), tax exempt charitable organization that benefits our community. To nominate an organization to receive the collection, complete the online application form found on our UUCP website www.phoenixuu.org > Social Justice Ministries > Share the Plate. Email Lillian Habeich at sharetheplate@phoenixuu.org,

Addictions Discussion Group

2nd and 4th Saturdays, year-round, at 4:30 PM

This addictions support group meets to discuss various compulsive and addictive behaviors. We provide a safe haven to discuss how our week has been and to talk openly about our spiritual beliefs. It is designed for those with stable recovery (we ask for 6 months of sobriety). For more information, call Gene at 480-361-9067.

Lead a Social Justice Ministry Team

Are you interested in organizing a team to work on a particular area of justice and social action? Are there others in the congregation also interested in the issue? Is there a partner organization you can work with in the community? If so, you are ready to form a Justice Ministry Team.

Justice Ministry Teams go through an application process and are approved by the Lead Minister. Download the Justice Ministry Team Application from the Social Justice Ministry page of our website.
